Two killed in Cross River

From Nicholas Kalu, Calabar

TWO people were killed in an accident on the Calabar-Ugep Highway, when a truck conveying cows skidded and fell off the road, it was learnt yesterday.

An eyewitness said the accident occurred about 10am at Ehom Central in Biase Local Government in Cross River State.

The victims were two Hausa men who were in the truck - the driver and his assistant.

Some other people were injured when their vehicle ran into the fallen truck.

Several cows were also killed in the accident and others injured. They littered the road. Traffic was stuck.

The victims were rushed to the Ugep General Hospital.
