Woman allegedly sells son in Oyo

Posted by: Bode Durojaiye, Oyo in News 2 days ago

A middle-aged woman has been handed over to the police in Oyo, Oyo State, for allegedly selling her baby to ritualists.

It was gathered that a commercial motorcyclist, who took her to a storey building where the baby was sold, was suspicious of the woman and hid somewhere to find out what she was up to.

Sources said about an hour later, the woman came out of the house without the baby, carrying a bag, and boarded another commercial motorcycle home.

On getting home, it was learnt that the woman raised the alarm that her baby was missing and her neighbours gathered to help her.

Sources said the motorcyclist that took her to where the baby was allegedly sold came to the house and told her neighbours where she took the baby.

The motorcyclist led the people to the two-storey building but no one was found in the building. It was learnt that blood stains were found in the house.

The woman's neighbours returned home to search her room and found a bag containing an unspecified amount of money there.

The woman was taken to Durbar Police Station for interrogation.
