GUNMEN killed yesterday a man, Akpan Ighodaro (45), on Old Road in Egor Area, Benin City.

It was gathered that Ighodaro and his wife were taking their kids to school when they were accosted.

An eyewitness said: "Five armed men waylaid the family, dragged the father out and shot him."

"The gunmen on executing their mission entered their vehicle and sped off."

Police spokesman Noble Uwoh said he has not been briefed.

But sources said some policemen from Ogida Police Division have visited the crime scene.
