

Three killed in Cross River car crash

From Nicholas Kalu, Calabar

THREE people have been killed in a car accident at Awi on the Calabar-Ikom highway in Cross River State. The victims died on the spot when their vehicle ran into a stationary truck parked by the roadside.

An eyewitness said the vehicle, a white Volkswagen Passat, was speeding downhill and as it tried to avoid a moving truck in front; it swerved off the road into the stationary truck.

The bodies were removed by men of the Emergency Response Centre.

The incident created a gridlock that lasted for several hours.

The bodies have been deposited at a mortuary in Akamkpa Local Government Area.
