

re you know it. In the past, we entered kicking the doors or windows. Some If you try that today, you will find ever dreamt of if you are lucky to b repented.

cult

y. The ber of a

st him in e said we rangers yed our our ter-burial ding the d.

back to estroying
to burn the come until w those who are behind it now, because I am no longer a cult member."

In March this year, the entire Ubima community was thrown into chaos after suspected cult members beheaded a 28-year-old man, Onyemuche William, and kept his head on top of the fence of a school in Omuawa, a neighbouring community. His gruesome murder almost instigated a serious communal clash between Omuawa and Ubima before the two communities' councils of chief resolved the matter amicably.

However, family members of the victim are still insisting on the arrest and prosecution of all the people who had a hand in the murder of the young man.

Narrating how his deceased brother was murdered, Onyemuche's elder