Four members of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) were feared dead while returning from the party's ward congress in Ekeremor local government area of the state.

They were said to have died when their boat capsized along the Ekeremor waterways.

Former Deputy Governor, Peremobowei Ebebi, was said to be among the occupants of the ill-fated boat but he was reportedly rescued.

Though details of the ugly incident were still sketchy at the time of filling this report, the victims were said to be returning from Ekeremor when the incident occurred.

President Goodluck Jonathan and Governor Seriake Dickson participated in the congresses, which held in the 105 wards of the 18 local government councils of the state.

Jonathan and Dickson asked party members to maintain peace ahead of political activities in the state.

Jonathan arrived the state on Friday evening and held marathon meetings with stakeholders at the State
