

the panel.

But Senator Ayo Adeseun, Femi Babalola, Seyi Makinde, Prof. Taoheed Adedoya,

and explained
did not availab

One killed in Ogun

From Ernest Nwokolo,
Abeokuta

A POPULAR shoemaker, George, whose workshop is located at the busy Station Busstop in Ijebu-Igbo, Ogun State, was killed yesterday.

Another victim's hand was amputated in the pre-dawn attack by suspected gunmen.

George, who was from Delta State, was killed at 5am when the gunmen stormed his house near St. Joseph's Primary School in Oke-Sopen area.

It was gathered that four gunmen invaded George's house, and he and his son repelled them. One of the assailant's hands was severed.

George died some minutes later and his remains were deposited at a morgue in Ojowo.

One of the injured assailants has been arrested by the police.

Police spokesman Olumuyiwa Adejobi said four people on a motorbike carried out the attack.

He said the victim died on the way to the hospital.

T Dem
from
Adeb
tive i

Just
derec
the s

He
do a
amo
cour

Th
man
said
faile

Th
quo
unt
by t
wa
min

T
tiv
ten
for ser