At least two persons were killed in a suicide bombing around Muna garage in Maiduguri, Borno State, on Wednesday night.

The spokesman of the state police command, Mr. Victor Isuku, confirmed this in a statement on Thursday.

“About 21:06 hours of Wednesday, an explosion occurred at Muna garage along Gamboru Ngala road Maiduguri.

“Two persons, including the suicide bomber, died on the spot while a Mercedes Benz car with registration number, AX 571 ABJ, parked by the road side was damaged by the impact of the explosion,” the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) quoted the police spokesman as saying in the statement.

He said normalcy had returned to the area.
