

Four die in Ekiti bank robbery

From Sulaiman Salawudeen, Ado-Ekiti

FOUR persons were killed yesterday in a bank robbery at Ikere-Ekiti, headquarters of Ikere Local Government Area of Ekiti State.

The victims are two policemen, a female corps member and an unidentified man who were said to be using Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) in the bank.

A source said 10 robbers came at 5pm and attacked a police station close to the bank at Kajola, where they shot a policeman and a policewoman.

The source said: "They came at 4:45 pm when the banks were closed. The robbers first attacked a police station close to the bank. People ran everywhere.

"Soon, soldiers arrived and there were an exchange of gunfire and the robbers escaped into the town, shooting sporadically."

Jonathan greets HID Awolowo at 99

...as some

them.

Shikoya