Two suspected robbers were killed on Monday night by men of the Delta State Police Command at Ogonu, Warri.

A statement yesterday in Asaba, the state capital, by the command's spokesman, Celestina Kalu, a deputy superintendent of Police (DSP), said two other members of the gang were arrested.

According to Kalu, a patrol team from the Quick Response Squad (QRS) encountered the gang at 9.50pm on Monday when they were "operating" with a tricycle, popularly called Keke.

The statement said the police engaged the suspects in a gun duel, which resulted in the death of two of the suspects.

The statement added: "On December 29, at 21.50hours (9.50pm), a patrol team from the QRS in Warri on a stop-and-search duty on the Ogonu Road, by Zenith Bank branch in Warri, encountered four robbers operating in a tricycle, with registration number: AKU 027 QB.

"...Two of the robbers were fatally wounded while two others, Oghenero Eghagbere 'Male' of 5 Okoloba Street, Effurun and Michael Aguwaneshie 'M' of 13 Kpokpogri Street, Off Adeje Road, Okpe, were arrested.

"Items recovered from them include one cut-to-size locally made barrel gun, one live cartridge, one battle axe and one tricycle, with registration number: AKU 027 QB.

"Also, the suspects are undergoing investigation at Area Commander's Office in Warri while the bodies of the deceased robbers have been deposited at the morgue for autopsy."
