NOTWITHSTANDING the two-day ban on vehicle movements in Yobe State, a suicide bomber joined a commercial Golf Volkswagen taxi at Maiduwa village and blew himself, killing six passengers with the injuring of two others on Wednesday by 1p.m.

The bomber, according to Audu Marga, an eyewitness yesterday, hid the explosives in his travelling bag, before detonating it at the Maiguwa junction on Potiskum-Fika road.

"The suspect disguised as one of the passengers at the road junction, when the taxi was about departing Maiduwa village blew up with a loud noise of explosion, and shattered the taxi into pieces, killing all the occupants, including the suspect," said Marga.

He said two other people were also injured in the taxi-suicide bombings and taken to Potiskum General hospital for treatment.

Yobe State Police Command in Damaturu yesterday confirmed the roadside blast.
