

Man, 69, killed in Ondo

From Damisi Ojo, Akure

A 69-YEAR-OLD man, Peter Adeboye, has been killed on his farmland at Igoba in Akure North Local Government Area of Ondo State.

Sources said the deceased was allegedly strangled to death by yet-to-be identified persons, who attacked him on his farm.

Sources said the late Adeboye went to his farm but did not return, a situation which made his family organise a search party.

His wife, Esther, was said to have discovered the body.

Police spokesman Wole Ogodo said: "Nothing was taken from the deceased. Mrs. Esther Adeboye came to the station to report that her husband was missing. She said he went to the farm and did not return. A search party was mobilised.

"On getting there, Mrs. Adeboye saw the body first and when they moved closer, they discovered that his trousers were removed. His neck was broken and there was blood flowing from his nose and mouth. His phone was in his hand.

"The body has been deposited at the State Specialist Hospital Mortuary, Akure."

Redeemer's University to graduate 598