Five feared dead in cult clash in Delta

Posted by: Okungbowa Alwerie, Asaba in News ⌚ 13 hours ago

Economic activities were disrupted yesterday in Agbor, Ika South Local Government Area of Delta State following clashes among rival cult groups.

Five persons were feared dead with several others injured, including a father of three.

Residents of Agbor-Obi scampered for safety following sporadic shootings.

It was learnt that suspected members of the Black Axe confraternity allegedly killed a member of a rival cult group to avenge the killing of their colleague.

Eyewitnesses said two other cult groups, including Barga and Ero, were allegedly fighting members of the Black Axe in a supremacy battle.

Public Relations Officer of the Delta State Police Command DSP Celestina Kalu confirmed the killings, adding that four persons have been confirmed dead.
