

Madueta Anna Oni as the House of Representatives candidate for Ekiti North Federal Constituency.

The plaintiffs are praying the court to declare that no valid primary election known to the party's constitution, its guidelines for primary

Electoral Commission (INEC) as a defendant.

Onipede, who deposed to the supporting affidavit, said they were cleared for the primaries, having obtained the nomination forms.

He said on December 7 when the primary election was to not hear from the party in relation to the new date, they appealed against the non-holding of the primary to the Election Appeal Committee and later the National Working Committee, but got no response.

On Friday, the plaintiffs

Commercial motorcyclist's body found

From Damisi Ojo, Akure

THE body of a middle-aged commercial motorcyclist (name withheld) has been found under a big tree at the back of a residential building in Ojojo village near Ondo town. The cause of his death was unknown at press time.

The Nation learnt that the deceased was hale and healthy, as he carried a passenger to the agrarian community.

Sources said a few hours later, his body was discovered with scars under a tree.

The news of his death was said to have attracted residents and a woman raised the alarm.

Policemen from Yaba Divisional Police

Station in Ondo town reportedly visited the community.

The news of the death of the commercial motorcyclist has generated controversy among his colleagues and kinsmen.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO), Yaba Ondo town, Princess Regina Mogbojuri confirmed the incident.

She said a report had been forwarded to the Ondo State Police Command, Akure, for further investigation.

The body has been deposited at the morgue of the Ondo State Specialist Hospital, Ondo.