

(NASU) and the Senior Staff Association of Nigerian Polytechnics (SSANIP).

ASUP Chairman Tunji Owoeye said the Federal

the issue is being resolved by the management.

"The issue of cooperative deductions is still lingering, but we are going to resolve it amicably." |

Aregbesola mourns journalist

From Adesoji Adeniyi, Osogbo

O SUN State Governor Rauf Aregbesola has mourned the death of a prominent broadcast journalist, Olumide Ajayi, who died on Saturday while returning from a public function in Imesi Ile.

In a condolence message by his media aide, Semiu Okanlawon, yesterday, the governor described his death as sad.

Aregbesola said Ajayi's life was cut short in his prime when his stars were shining.

"On behalf of the government and people of Osun, I commiserate with the Nigeria Union of Journalists (NUJ); the Osun State Broadcasting Corporation, the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) and his family.

"His death only reminds us of one thing: That death is a necessary end and that while we are alive, we must strive to play our parts in manners that promote good humanity."

Ajayi was a press secretary to the former Speaker, the House of Assembly, Adejare Bello.

Osun SUBEB launches magazine

THE Osun State Universal Basic Education Board (SUBEB) would tomorrow launch its periodic magazine, O'SUBEB

• The ultra-modern market. INSET: Opeoluwa of Lagos, Chief Lateef A. Managing Director, Palamyra Limited (third right).

Fashola inaugurates

LAGOS State Governor Babatunde Fashola inaugurated yesterday the new ultra modern Oyingbo market complex, 24 years after it was demolished for reconstruction.

The new four-floor massive complex, sitting on 544 square metres, boasts of 150-car capacity parking lot on