

Seven die in accidents

S EVEN persons died and 23 others injured, following multiple accidents at the Danco filling station stretch (Ogun State) of the Lagos -

Ibadan Expressway yesterday evening.

The accident involved a truck, two commercial buses and a Toyota Camry led to the on-the-spot death of the four men and three women.

The Spokesman of the state Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps (TRACE), Babatunde Akinbiyi, who take judicial notice of a letter written by the UPN to INEC, be joined as a co-defendant.

Ernest Nwokolo, Abeokuta

confirmed the accident and number of people affected, gave the vehicles number plates as Camry car: KEY 857 DN, buses: XB 367 LAF, XC 909 FFA and the truck AGL 632 XH.

Also, the Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) Ogun State, Adetunji Adegoke, said FRSC officials and policemen were at the scene to rescue victims, explaining that the injured have been taken to the hospital.

happened at a wake when Fagbola, a father of seven, was about to leave the event.

The suspect, who had been keeping malice with the deceased, allegedly hacked the victim, leaving him in a pool of his blood.

Sources said Fagbola had last Thursday seized Ede's phone for failing to supply him blocks which he had paid for.

Police spokesman Alberto Adeyemi said the suspect is being held at the state CID.