

THE NATION

OSUN EAST

China Jewelry Wholesale

Unique Big Style, Ship to Nigeria.
2000+ Sets, Hi-Quality, No MOQ

Pupil killed, others injured in crash

015

James Azania,

A pupil of Covenant Secondary School, Lokoja, the Kogi State capital, died on Sunday and others sustained injuries in an accident in the metropolis.

The deceased, Jalekaiye Dominion, reportedly died from head injuries. His body has been deposited in the mortuary. The injured are receiving treatment at the Federal Medical Centre (FMC), Lokoja.

It was learnt that 50 boarding pupils were on their way to school after a Sunday service at the Living Faith Church at Phase II when the crash occurred.

According to an eyewitness account, a truck trying to avoid a pothole on the Murtala Muhammed Way, hit the state mass transit bus conveying the pupils to school, from the back.

Three persons were said to have died and many sustained injuries in another accident at Felele, Lokoja.

It was said to have involved a cement company truck, which lost control and veered into a market, ramming into commercial motorcyclists conveying passengers from the market.

The Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps

(FRSC) could not be reached for confirmation on the phone, as his line was unreachable.

ShareTweet+ 1MailPrevious Post Next PostBack to top