Police arraign cultists for murder

Posted by: Rukayat JIMOH in News 2 days ago

Four suspected cultists have been arraigned for allegedly killing two persons at Mushin, Lagos State.

The incident happened at about 9.30pm Itire Road Junction, Mushin around 9.30 pm on February 14, 2015.

Jamiu Eniola, 34; Benjamin Wilson, 38; Wale Odukoya, 25, and Taiwo Adewumi, 27, are facing an Ebute Meta Chief Magistrate's Court on a four count charge including conspiracy, felony and murder.

They are alleged to have shot dead Femi Egbekunle and Saliu Maja on the day of the incident.

Alleged to have aided them in the act were one Onbe and one Nurudeen, both of whom are on the run.

Jamiu, a fashion designer; Benjamin, a barber; Taiwo, a tailor and Wale, a jobless man had clashed with Egbekunle and Maja during which the suspects shot the victims.

The charge sheet reads: "That you Jamiu Eniola, Benjamin Wilson; Wale Odukoya; Taiwo Adewumi and others at large on February 14, 2015 at about 0930 hrs at Itire Road Junction, Mushin in the Lagos magisterial district did kill one Femi Egbekunle and Saliu Maja by shooting him with a gun on his chest and thereby committed an offence punishable under Section 221 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.

"That you Jamiu Eniola; Benjamin Wilson; Wale Odukoya; Taiwo Adewumi and others at large on the same date, time and place in the aforesaid magisterial district did belong to an unlawful society called Eiye Confraternity and thereby committed an offence punishable under Section 42 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.

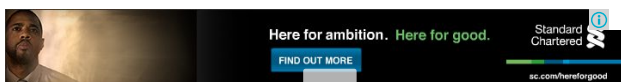

Their plea was not taken.

The police prosecutor, Elizabeth Ekuma, applied for the remand of the defendants in prison custody pending legal advice from the state Director of Public Prosecution (DPP).

The offences according to the prosecutor are punishable under Sections 221 and 42 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.

The presiding magistrate, Mrs M.O.Tanimola, ordered that the defendants be remanded in prison custody while the case was adjourned till May 18.
