

Sinking Fund reserve for repayment of outstanding issues, while coupons are serviced

In terms of completing other conditions precedent for government to take over the project the African Development Bank (ADB), Stanbic IBTC, First Bank and others.

made in investment commitment."

Man electrocuted in Osun

A MAN, Opeyemi Ogundele, was electrocuted yesterday in Ilesa, Osun State, as he attempted to illegally re-connect electricity to his house.

It was gathered that workers of the Ibadan Electricity Distribution Company (IBEDC) had disconnected the house over unpaid bill.

The deceased believed to

From Adesoji Adeniyi, Osogbo

be hired by his co-tenants allegedly charged N1500 for the illegal reconnection.

He reportedly rented a ladder for N200 and was left with N1300.

Eyewitnesses said Ogundele mistakenly touched the live wire on the pole and was electrocuted instantly.

His co-tenants deserted the house after the incident.

The remains have been deposited at the mortuary of the Wesley Guild Hospital, Ilesa.

Police spokesperson Ms Sade Odoro said investigation have commenced into the matter.

Another man, identified as Bolaji, reportedly shot himself with his dane gun at Itagunmodi in Atakunmosa-West Local Government Council.

The local hunter was said to be trying to shoot a bush rat, when his dane gun exploded and hit him in the abdomen.

He is said to be receiving treatment at the Wesley Guild Hospital.

Synagogue: Coroner concludes inquisition of witnesses

THE Lagos Coroner investigating the last Sep-

By Adebisi Onanuga

court throughout the seven months it courted contest the ruling. The appeal