

Two suspected robbers set ablaze in Benue

TWO suspected robbers have been lynched and set ablaze at Aliade, headquarters of Gwer East Local Government Area of Benue State.

An eyewitness said the robbers attacked a motorcyclist, Orjimin Numve, who was conveying three passengers.

It was learnt that as the cyclist dropped his passengers, three suspected robbers pulled out a gun and started beating him.

The suspected robbers allegedly snatched the machine and attempted to escape with it.

But they were said to have run into a road block mounted by some cyclists, who heard of the attack.

Two of the suspected robbers were overpowered, lynched and set ablaze.

The third reportedly escaped into the bush.

Police Commissioner Hyacinth Dagala condemned the killing.

He urged the public to always hand over suspects to the police for investigation and prosecution.

Gwer East local government Area Chairman Fidelis Humbe urged commercial motorcycle operators not to take the law into their hands.
