

Primary school pupil stabbed to death in Kano

A SCHOOLGIRL of Fagge Special Primary School in Kano, whose name could not be ascertained, was yesterday stabbed to death by unidentified assailants.

The incident was said to have occurred at 1pm at the school's pit toilet.

It was learnt that the assailants scaled the fence and abducted a male and a female pupils when classes were in progress.

The two pupils were reportedly dumped inside a pit toilet.

The schoolgirl was stabbed on the head, which

From Kolade Adeyemi, Kano

caused her death.

It was also learnt that the male pupil survived the attack.

When our reporter visited the school, the pit toilet, where the pupils were attacked, was locked.

A security man on the school premises, Mallam Ibrahim Dan Sariki, told our reporter that at 1pm yesterday, some hoodlums scaled the school fence and attacked two pupils.

He said the hoodlums dragged the pupils into the toilet and stabbed them repeatedly on the head.

Dan Sariki said the schoolgirl died, following the injured she sustained on the head while the boy survived.

Police spokesman Musa Magaji Majiya, an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), confirmed the incident.

He said immediately the police were alerted by the Assistant Headmaster, they by drafted the crack squad to the scene.

On arrival, Majiya said the police met the victims in a pool of blood.

According to him, the police took photographs of the toilet, where their blood was splashed and rushed the pupils to a hospital, where the girl was confirmed dead.

Majiya said the male pupil was responding well to treatment.

The spokesman said investigation into the incident had begun, adding that the motive behind the attack had not been established.

Court voids Benue Rep-elect's victory for