Woman, 38, to die by hanging

Posted by: Uja Emmanuel, Makurdi in News ⌚ 8 hours ago

A Makurdi High Court in Benue State has sentenced a housewife, Mrs. Ternenge Tersoo, 38, to death by hanging for killing her one-year-old step son.

Her husband told the police in 2012 that Ternenge, his second wife, snatched the baby from his nanny and strangled him.

When the case came up, she denied the allegation and was not remorseful. She did not call any witness to substantiate her claim.

The prosecution called two witnesses, including the investigating police officer, who tendered a medical report of the autopsy carried out on the baby at the General Hospital, Vandeikya.

Justice Jennifer Ijohor said the evidence before her showed that the prosecution proved his case to warrant the conviction of Mrs. Tersoo.

She advised barren women to look up to God, instead of engaging in nefarious acts.

Mrs. Tersoo was later taken to the Federal Minimum Prison, Makurdi where she is awaiting death by hanging.
