Man allegedly clubs prophet to death

A 27-YEAR-OLD man, Azeez Alimi, yesterday appeared before an Ebute-Meta Chief Magistrates' Court in Lagos for allegedly clubbing a prophet called "Woli Akin" to death.

The prosecutor, Corporal Iyobosa Onaiwu, told the court that the offence was committed on April 8, at 8, Okewode Street, Lakowe in Ibeju Lekki, Lagos.

Onaiwu alleged that the accused hit Akin with a plank on his head.

She said Akin had accosted Alimi, asking why he was giving people his residential address.

The prosecutor said a fight ensued and Azeez picked a plank, hit the deceased on the head and he died.

Onaiwu said the offence contravened Section 221 of the Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the section prescribes a death sentence for the crime.

The court did not take Azeez's plea.

Chief Magistrate Mr F.J. Adefioye ordered that the accused be remanded in Ikoyi Prisons pending receipt of legal advice from the Director of Public Prosecution (DPP).

He adjourned the case till July 15.
