

from the Director of Public Prosecution (DPP).
He adjourned the case till July 15.

Driver docked for killing pedestrian

2 A 27-YEAR-OLD man, Akeem Lawal, was yesterday arraigned before an Ojo Magistrates' Court in Lagos for allegedly knocking down a pedestrian, Gbenga Fadahunsi, 37.

Lawal is standing trial on a two-count charge of reckless driving and manslaughter.

'According to the prosecutor, Corporal Femi Adeleye, the accused had on June 5 at 10 am, driven a bus on Ikotun-Egbe Road recklessly and caused the death of Fadahunsi.

"The accused drove an LT commercial bus – KJA 15 XN — on a public highway in a dangerous manner. The accused also drove the bus without due consideration for other road users," Adeleye said, adding that the offence contravened Sections 18 and 20 of the Road Traffic Law of Lagos State, 2012.

The accused, pleaded not guilty.

Magistrate Peter Nwaka granted him N200,000 bail, with two sureties, who must be his relations.

The sureties, he said, should provide evidence of three years' tax payment as part of the bail conditions. The case was adjourned till July 15.