Missing ex-FUTA VC Ilemobade found dead

Posted by: Damisi Ojo in News, News Update ⌚ 18 hours ago

One week after he was reported to have been abducted, the decomposing body of former Vice-Chancellor of the Federal University of Technology, Akure, Prof Albert Ilemobade, was on Sunday found in one of the stores in his Ijapo residence in Akure, the Ondo state capital.

It was learnt that the former Chairman of Committee of Vice-Chancellors was murdered by his driver, Yemi, and security guard, Daniel.

The two suspects were said to have been arrested in Ogun state by a team of policemen while trying to sell a car owned by the deceased.

Sources said the suspects confessed during interrogation that the SUV car belonged to their boss and that they had murdered him.

The remains of the University don were discovered where it was kept and later taken to the morgue.

Ilemobade, his driver and security guard were last Monday declared missing.

It was initially believed that the former VC was abducted by kidnappers, prompting relatives, church members and friends to pray and call for his release.
