Gunmen have killed 14 people in an attack on Sho village of Barkin Ladi local government of Plateau State, whose capital Jos witnessed suicide bombing on Sundaynight which killed 51 persons.

In the Monday night blast in Kano, one critically injured person has died. Another person taken to hospital injured, has been treated and discharged.

The gunmen stormed Sho village, Barkin Ladi LGA midnight and killed 14 residents.

The attack on Sho village was announced by the member representing Barkin Ladi constituency in the House of Assembly, Hon. Peter Gyendeng.

Gyendeng lamented that members of his constituency were been killed on a daily basis by gunmen. He called on the federal government to do everything possible to nip in the bud the activities of terrorists in the country.

Mark Lipdo, the founder of a Non-Governmental Organisation(NGO) also confirmed the killings.

He described the attack as inhuman which must be condemned

He said "all efforts at peace building are being impeded by the terror attacks."

Kano State Police spokesman Musa Magaji Majiya, said Commissioner of Police Ibrahim Idris had visited the scene to ascertain the extent of damage.

According to him, as soon as the police conclude preliminary investigations, the public will be briefed of its feedings. No arrest has been made, he added.
