

environment for entrepreneurs', identified the provision of security, education, social capital and investor-friendly policies as crucial to the enhancement of entrepreneurship.

He said: "The quality of a government in any environment can make or mar entrepreneurship. Nothing is possible without a functioning government.

"No matter how rich you are, without a functioning government you are limited in what you can do because there are things that the government can do that you cannot do by yourself."

Workshop on power sector coming

Damaturu highway.

The hoodlums were routed, according to eye witnesses.

2 Overnight, terrorists raided Ngamdu village some 100 kilometres from Maiduguri, killing 11, just 24 hours after another gang opened fire on residents of Gamboru, Borno State, as they returned to inspect their damaged homes in the abandoned town.

Eight of the villagers died in the incident, displaced people said.

Many of the residents who had fled the town, close to the border with Cameroon during a previous attack, were said to have