

hind the Finance and Infrastructure Committee set up by Governor Abubakar Sani is the essence of change that the people voted for."

embarked on people's projects that we are proud of. Example is the Sabongari tion to do its bidding, as this will amount to witch-hunt."

Undergraduate's suspected killers nabbed in Kano

THREE suspected killers of a student of the Federal University of Education, Kano, Bashir Shehu, 27, who was murdered at Rumfa College while preparing for his examination, have been arrested.

The suspects, Ibrahim Mu'azu, Adamu Abdullahi and Muktari Hassan, were among the over 100 Yandaba (hoodlums) in police custody in Kano.

Briefing reporters at the Bompai Police Headquarters yesterday, the command spokesman Magaji Musa Majia said over 100 Yandaba had been arrested and 88 had been prosecuted and imprisoned, adding that 46 got one year and 42 six months without an option of fine.

The Yandaba specialise in terrorising residents, killing innocent citizens in the Kano metropolis.

Majia said the hoodlums, who stormed Rumfa College about 10 pm were a gang of the Yandaba from Gandun Albasa, Dan Agundi and Tukuntawa in the Kano me-

From Kolade Adeyemi, Kano metropolis.

His words: "They suddenly invaded the classroom and attacked students with cutlasses, knives, clubs and other weapons, inflicting injuries on them.

"They broke the leg of the deceased and abandoned him in a pool of blood. The gang later headed for MASCO Mechanic garage at Gandun Albasa and damaged the windscreen of more than 30 vehicles brought for repairs. The Yandaba even killed domestic animals and cut the branches of trees with swords and machetes."

Following a tip-off by residents, authorities of the command despatched a special police squad led by DSP Maiwuya Abubakar, the O/C in-charge of Strike Force/Daba Operation, who stormed the area and moved the body of Bashir to a Kano hospital, where he later died.

The squad combed the Yandaba's hideouts and arrested many of them, who confessed to the crime.

The suspects, who the police authorities described as "notorious criminals and hired assassins", mentioned the names of 13 others linked to the Rumfa College attack.

Majia urged residents to be on the alert and report the activities of the Yandaba and other criminals to the police.

Police arrest suspected certificate forger

A 38-YEAR-old man, Mr. Abdulmajeed Olajide, who allegedly specialises in forging documents and certificates of higher institutions, is in the custody of the Kwara State Police Command.

He was reportedly arrested in his office at Isale Koto, Ilorin.

A source, who lives near the suspect's office, said he

From Adekunle Jimoh, Ilorin mistook him for an estate manager "until I saw police officers, who came to raid his office."

The documents and certificates recovered from him included those of universities and polytechnics.

The police also recovered WAEC, NECO and NYSC certificates, seals and rubber stamps of private and public schools and other forged documents.

Olajide said he had been in the business for a decade.

Said he: "I'm from Ede in Osun State. I have been in the business for up to 10 years and I have made millions of naira, precisely about N8million.

"I sell a certificate for about N80,000, but it depends on who I'm dealing