

Two dead, two injured in Ogun accidents

Posted By: Ernest Nwokolo on: July 23, 2015 In: News 1 Comment

Two people died and two others were injured in separate accidents in Ogun State yesterday.

One person died in an explosion at a government petroleum dump site in Abeokuta, the state capital.

Two others were injured in the accident.

The last person, a commuter, died when a truck fell on him at a bus stop in Ijebu-Ode.

The dump site is within the old State Road Maintenance Agency (OGROMA) yard, opposite Agbeloba Building on Quarry Road.

A bricklayer working at the site, who witnessed the incident, said the victims were working on three underground tankers, which were relocated from the government fuel dumps at the old secretariat.

It was gathered that firemen put out the fire quickly to enable rescuers retrieve the victim's body.

On the Ijebu-Ode accident, the spokesman of the State Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Agency (TRACE), Babatunde Akinbiyi, said a Mack tanker, APP 81 XL, killed a man, Ahmed, when the truck fell on a Nissan space bus, KJA 901 BX.

Akinbiyi said the tanker driver, identified as Chinedu, is in police custody.

The victim's remains have been collected by his family.

