

Habiba Abubakar loses mom

ABUJA celebrity businesswoman and billionaire, Hajiya Habiba Abubakar, is not in her best moments. She lost her mother during the sallah celebration in a fatal car crash which also claimed the lives of her driver and maid. The deceased was returning from Sokoto to Abuja after attending the traditional marriage arrangements of Habiba's little step sister,

Sources said the Kano-born real estate investor is currently on holiday in London and had ordered her siblings to fly her mother to London where her hospital is, but she gave up in transit.

Married to a retired career diplomat who represented Nigeria in Iraq during Operation Desert Storm, Hajiya Habiba is deeply involved in charity work with her organisation, the Foundation for the Elderly and the Poor, which has won local and international awards.
