

Murder suspect goes to prison

Posted By: Rukayat JIMOH on: August 29, 2015 In: News No Comments

A Chief Magistrate's Court in Ebute Metta has ordered that a 19 –year- old murder suspect, Ibrahim Ogunkoya aka 'National', be remanded in prison custody.

Ibrahim, a native of Ijebu Ode, who resides at Block 336, Flat 4 Jakande Estate, Lekki was said to have stabbed his 18- year- old friend, Eniola Toyin, with a kitchen knife on his left armpit during a scuffle.

The defendant, it was learnt, is a footballer and plays in the same team as Eniola.

They were said to have engaged in a fight on March 10, 2015 at Emirate Club, Small Kuramo along Lekki Beach Road, Lekki during which Ibrahim stabbed Eniola to death at about 7pm.

Ibrahim was said to have fled from the scene but was later apprehended and subsequently charged to court.

His plea was not taken

The police prosecutor, Agoi Gbemileke, filed an application that the defendant be remanded in prison pending legal advice from the office of Director of Public Prosecutions, DPP.

The presiding magistrate, O.O.A Fowowe Erusiafe, ordered that the defendant be remanded in prison custody pending legal advice from DPP's office.

The case was adjourned till October 19.

FACEBOOK COMMENTS

DISQUS COMMENTS