

Army acting spokesman Col. Sani Kukasheka Usman said seven people died and 11 were injured.

Troops of the 5 Brigade yesterday ambushed suspected Boko Haram insurgents, who last week allegedly attacked Geidam and military posts in Yobe State.

Col. Usman said the incident occurred when the suspected terrorists were returning from Gajiram town, near Ngollom village in Borno State.

He said 10 suspected militias were killed and weapons were recovered.
