

Wada consoles accident victims' families

Posted By: James Azania on: October 27, 2015 In: News No Comments

IDRIS WADA

•Adeh community vows to vote for PDP

Kogi State Governor Idris Wada has commiserated with the families of those who died in an accident on their way to the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) governorship rally in Ayingba.

He expressed his condolences to the Adeh community in Olamaboro Local Government and the deceased's families when he visited them.

The governor described the incident as "a big loss to all of us", saying God Almighty is the giver and taker of life.

Said he: "When we lose lives, we should not attribute the incident to any factor. We should see it as the will of God."

The SSA1 of Olamaboro Council, Dr. Simon Akogu, thanked the governor for commiserating with the bereaved.

ASP Collins Omale (rtd), who spoke on behalf of Adeh community, thanked Governor Wada for the visit.

Members of the community pledged their loyalty to the Wada administration, vowing to come out in their thousands to vote for PDP on November 21.

Do you get a good or bad response from your wife after making love? CLICK HERE to Discover a great natural solution that changed my story and put an end to weak/premature ejaculation.

From 3inch My Manhood Increase to 7.5 Inch and I now last long in bed after six years of no sex and marital wahala! SEE MY TESTIMONY.

FACEBOOK COMMENTS

DISQUS COMMENTS

0 Comments

Post by: