Vigilantes kill commercial motorcycle rider in Delta

Posted By: Polycarp Orosewotu on: January 04, 2016 In: News No Comments

Three members of a vigilance group on Oveto Street, Ughelli, Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State, allegedly killed an unidentified commercial motorcycle (Okada) rider at 10.30 pm on New Year Day.

The vigilantes were arrested by soldiers attached to the 222 Battalion at Agbarha-Otor, Ughelli.

The suspects, who were handed over to the Ughelli "B" Division Police Station the following day, were identified as Peter Oghenechuko of the Ughelli Vigilante Council (UVC), Sunny Oyowwire and Fidelis Onwah.

Two single-barrelled guns, four live cartridges and a cutlass were allegedly recovered from them.

A female passenger, who was said to have witnessed the killing, said the man was shot in the back of his head, following an argument between the Okada rider and the vigilantes.

Accepting blame for the death of the Okada rider, Oghenechuko said he was attempting to shoot in the air when the bullet hit the Okada rider.

He said: "I wanted to shoot into the air to scare him while he (Okada rider) tried to ram into me with his motorcycle when the gun exploded and hit him in the head."

Police spokesperson Celestina Kalu, a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP), said the victim was rushed to the Ughelli Central Hospital where he died.
