Kwara auto crash

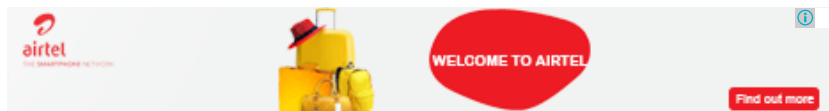

Thirteen persons, including a priest, yesterday lost their lives in a multiple auto accident near Asaba, the Delta State Capital.

The vehicles involved include a Ford bus, with registration number GWK 684 XA, belonging to the Christ Anglican Church, Ibusa; a Mitsubishi L300, with registration number BJ 831 AKD; a commercial bus; and a Honda car, with registration number BEN 413 CF.

The death of the Anglican priest, Rev Stanley Ejiniwe, it was learnt, threw the entire Asaba Diocese of the Anglican Communion into mourning.

The Nation gathered that four victims of the crash are receiving treatment at St. Joseph Catholic Hospital and St. Rebecca hospital both in Asaba, while the dead- 11 males and two females, have been deposited at the General Hospital, Ibusa.

The driver of the commercial bus and his wife reportedly died in the crash, according to an eye witness, who added that the cleric, who was recently transferred to Christ Anglican Church, Ibusa, was alone in the Ford bus belonging to his parish.

The eyewitness stated further that the priest was descending the hills from Ibusa end, while the commercial bus was ascending the hill.

The Honda car, also said to be coming from Ibusa and speeding, ran into the vehicles.

Confirming the report on Friday, the state Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Mr. Rindom Kumven, blamed the crash on over-speeding and poor visibility.
