Troops drive terrorists from hideout

TROOPS of the 114 Task Force Battalion, 28 Task Force Brigade, in conjunction with members of vigilance groups, have driven Boko Haram terrorists from the Bitu-Madube Ciki-Njubul axis.

• Four killed

From Patrick Ngwaogu,
Abuja

During the operation, two soldiers stepped on a buried Improvised Explosive Device

(IED), and one of them was injured.

The troops killed four insurgents, destroyed two vehicles and two motorcycles.

They recovered two cylinders, one AK-47 rifle, three boxes of 7.62mm (special ammunition, two bicycles and bags of grains.

The soldiers rescued 54 persons from the terrorists. The freed hostages are being screened, while the injured soldiers have been taken to hospital.
