Four killed in Enugu auto crash

FOUR persons yesterday lost their lives in a motor accident on the Enugu-Onitsha old road.

From Chris Oji, Enugu

Among the dead was a little girl.

The Public Relations Officer of the Enugu State Police Command Mr Ebere Amaraizu confirmed the incident.

He said the crash occurred at about 6.30 am.

Amaraizu said that the accident, which involved a water tanker with registration number ENU 211 XY and a Galaxy Sharon minibus with registration number LFA 375 XA coming from opposite directions of the road took place close to Udi Local Government secretariat.

"The accident led to the instant death of four persons including a little girl, and left some injured," he said.

He said that the injured were rushed by a combined team of policemen, Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) officials and public-spirited Nigerians to the hospital.

It was learnt the injured were taken to Our Saviour Hospital 9th-Mile Corner, Ngwo, and Victoria Hospital, Udi while remains of the deceased were deposited in the mortuary.

Amaraizu said that police had commenced investigation on the incident.
