

Two arraigned for cutting dead woman's parts

Posted By: Adesoji Adeniyi on: April 13, 2016 In: News No Comments

Federal High Court

Two persons – a fake doctor, Ponle Adesoji and his friend, Nurudeen Ganiyu- were yesterday arraigned in court for allegedly cutting parts of a woman, Afusat Sakari, who died in a private clinic in Osogbo, the Osun State capital.

Adesoji (49) and Nurudeen (52) were arraigned on a three-count charge of conspiracy, assault and impersonation.

The charge sheet stated that the accused conspired to commit the alleged offence by cutting part of the victim's lips, part of her nose, pubic and armpit hair.

The charge sheet further stated that the accused committed the alleged offence on April 6 at Tinuola Clinic and Maternity Centre at Owode, Oluode area of Osogbo.

The charge sheet reads: "That you Ponle Adesoji and Nurudeen Ganiyu, on April 6 at about 10pm at Tinuola clinic and maternity hospital did improperly or indecently interfere with the body of Afusat Sakari by cutting part of her lip, part of her nose, pubic hair, armpit hair and her hair.

"That you Ponle Adesoji on or before April 6 with intent to defraud, falsely represent yourself to be a medical doctor and operate a hospital know as Tinuola clinic and maternity hospital without licence."

Police prosecutor Mireti Wilson said the offences contravened Sections 517, 242 (1)(b) and 484, criminal code cap 34 Vol. 11, laws of Osun State, 2003.

However, the two accused pleaded not guilty. Their counsel, Mrs. Praise Ofoyeju, urged the court to grant her clients bail in a liberal term.

She promised that they would not jump bail, if they are granted by the court.

Magistrate Olusola Aluko, therefore, granted the accused bail of N100,000 with two sureties.

The judge added that one of the sureties must be a civil servant with a minimum of Grade Level 4.

He adjourned the case till May 17.

How A Lagos Factory Worker Went Against All Odds To Breakthrough From A Business Everybody Thinks Is Only Meant For The Rich Read His Story Here...

Ad Here: x

3 Simple Tricks to Turn Your Facebook to ATM MACHINE that Vomits cash