It doesn't rain but pours, is a popular aphorism which seems to be the case in the household of the late popular Yoruba actor; Ishola Durojaiye, aka Alasari, who passed on five years ago.

Last Friday, one of the widows of the late thespian, Adeola, reportedly died in a fatal accident. Alasari too had died in an auto accident on his way from Lagos to his base in Abeokuta, Ogun State.

Reports say Adeola was alighting from a commercial motorcycle, popularly called Okada, when she was hit from behind by an oncoming truck. She died instantly.

According to an eyewitness, "The truck crushed the woman from behind as she was trying to disembark from an Okada. She died instantly."

The mother of one was buried at her late husband's Elegba home, in Abeokuta, last Saturday. Report by the Police Public Relations Officer, Muyiwa Adejobi indicated that the unfortunate incident happened at Car wash bus-stop, Adatan, last Friday.

He said: "The accident occurred at Car Wash bus-stop in Adatan on Friday, when a truck crushed a woman to death. We later got to know her identity as the wife of the late Yoruba actor, and movie producer; Ahmed Ishola Durojaiye, popularly called Alasari."
