One person was confirmed killed and three injured as suspected All Progressives Congress (APC) and Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) supporters clashed in Dutse, the Jigawa State capital.

The incident occurred during the visit of the PDP National Chairman, Ali Modu Sheriff.

A source said suspected APC members gathered on the Kiyawa Road and chanted a slogan (Bamayi), which provoked suspected PDP supporters, resulting in a clash that left one person dead.

Addressing reporters, the Special Assistant on Media to the Jigawa State Governor, Malam Bello Zaki, alleged that PDP supporters attacked APC members, killing one and injuring three.

He described the incident as barbaric.

The aide alleged that after the PDP stakeholders' meeting, suspected thugs went round Dutse, attacking people perceived to be APC members.

He alleged that they killed one person and injured three.

Police spokesman Abdu Jinjiri confirmed the incident.

He said a suspect, Bashir Yusuf, has been arrested.

The Vice Chairman of PDP in Jigawa Central Zone, Alhaji Aminu Nuhu Jahun, said his members were not responsible for the violence.

He urged the police to arrest and prosecute the culprits.
