An unidentified man was Wednesday stabbed to death in Lagos Island after some miscreants engaged in a free-for-all.

The incident occurred at Orolanya Street at about 2:30pm.

It was gathered that the street boys who were battling for supremacy, had blocked the entire street, brandishing bottles and cutlasses.

The Nation gathered that it took the intervention of policemen from Adeniji Adele division to disperse the miscreants.

Confirming the incident, the state command's spokesperson, Dolapo Badmos, a Superintendent of Police (SP) said the street boys fled upon sighting police patrol van.
