An eyewitness who spoke to The Nation, said, "I was inside the house when I heard a loud bang. I thought a building had collapsed, so I quickly ran out. It was then I saw the crime scene."

After confirming that it was more of an accident scene, they moved closer to the scene only to discover the brave robbery victim, who decided to take the fight to his robbers head on.

The Nation learnt that the car driver and his passenger were earlier robbed of their phones and some money at gun point by the two robbers, who were on a motorcycle in front of TFC on 22 road.

He decided to go after them. The hot chase lasted barely 10 seconds before hitting the robbers, who on sighting him chasing them wanted to turn and "finish him."

The victim's Toyota car intercepted the motorcycle opposite the FHA Club, just a block away from the building where they robbed him.

The impact of the hit released the air bag of his vehicle, the most part of the motorcycle being under the tyres of his car.

The injured robber quickly buried his gun, claiming to be an Okada rider.

Meanwhile, the victim proceeded to Festac Police Division to report the incident.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO) of the station, Mr Monday Agbonika and some of his men accompanied the victim to the accident scene to see things for themselves.

On the DPO's instruction, the area was searched and the gun used during the robbery attack was discovered.

The DPO of the police divisional headquarters, Festac Town, Mr. Monday Agbonika, who expressed joy that the residents were able to stand up and protect their lives and property, told The Nation that the victim acted in bravery.

"I'm very happy that those guys made an effort to protect their property. What they did wasn't an easy thing, considering that the robbers were armed."

Another eyewitness explained how one of the robbers quickly buried the gun, whilst claiming to be an innocent okada man, who was brutally brought down by the motorist.

"It's a good thing the victim was smart enough to come and report the crime quickly and I responded immediately. When we got to the scene of the crime, the robbers had almost turned the case around. In fact, if we hadn't recovered the pistol, the victims would have been taken in as suspects" said the DPO.

The DPO revealed that apart from the gun, they also recovered some phones and the sum of N96,000 from the robbers.

The unidentified robbers, who were seriously injured, were immediately rushed to the hospital.

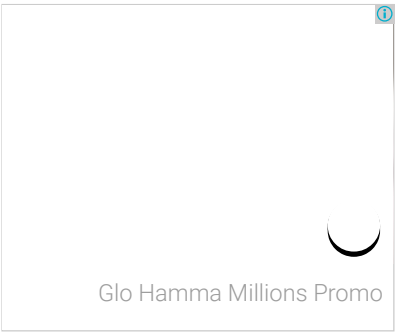

As at the time of filing this report, one of them was reported dead.
