

As at yesterday, two injured passengers of the accident were still battling with their lives.

There was tension in Ekiti in Ekiti West Local Government Area following the alleged killing of a commercial motorcyclist by a truck belonging to a popular haulage company on Sunday.

The youths of the community urged security agencies to fish out the driver of the truck.

They set the truck on fire to avenge the killing of the okada rider.