

Penultimate week, three youths, including one Damilare and two others, were killed by suspected Eiye members in Iloye, who also proclaimed and celebrated a new 'score line' that gave them an edge over Aiye members.

Inside sources said it's 14 -8 scoreline in favour of dreaded Eiye cult boys going by recent killings, some of which were not brought to the attention of the police by the parents of the victims and residents.