•Three injured

A woman, Hajia Tawakalt Akala has died in an accident with her 16-month-old baby, Aasia Okuneye.

An 11-year-old boy also died in the accident, which occurred on 21 Road in Festac Town last Saturday.

Three other persons who were injured in the accident, The Nation learnt, are in the hospital.

Hajia Akala, The Nation learnt, was coming from an event. She was to join her husband and four other kids for their children's school's end of the year party.

The tricycle she boarded had an head on collision with a Sport Utility Vehicle (SUV).

The tricycle driver was said to have overtaken a vehicle before the oncoming SUV hit the tricycle.

Hajia Akala, her 16-month-old baby and the 11-year-old boy were said to have died on the spot, while three others involved in the accident were taken to the hospital.

The Nation learnt that the driver of the SUV has been arrested by policemen from FESTAC Police Station.

The tricycle and the SUV were taken to the station, it was gathered.

The deceased's widower, Shuaib Okuneye, a businessman described the incident as tragic.

Okuneye, the Amir (President) of the Muslim Students' Society of Nigeria (MSSN), Amuwo-Odofin Area Council told The Nation yesterday that he was still in shock over the incident.

"She went for an event. We were expecting to hear from her on her way back to either join us at home or meet us at the children's school for the end of the year party, but unfortunately, we got this sad news we never expected at the moment," he said.

MSSN Lagos State Area Unit President Mallam Saheed Ashafa commiserated with the family of the deceased.

Ashafa prayed to Allah to grant them the fortitude to bear the loss.

A friend, Kudroh Omolola wrote on social media: "Just that Saturday morning, we were all together still enjoying our reunion, after a while, it was a separation.

"I have looked at her and her child with such love and admiration. I told her this daughter of yours looked so much like you, she told me that I'm the second person to say that to her. I smiled and gave the child a second look, not knowing it is the last time I will see them."
