Five persons, including two children, were yesterday confirmed dead after a multiple accident on the Third Mainland Bridge.

It was gathered that the accident, which occurred around 6:10pm, involved three vehicles – a LAGBUS, Hilux truck belonging to Ikorodu Vigilante Group known as Oyabo and a Rover Sport Utility Vehicle (SUV).

Among the dead were three women and two children – a boy and girl.

It was learnt that the LAGBUS and truck drivers collided.

The Rover SUV driver, it was learnt, was behind the vehicles and rammed into them.

LASEMA General Manager Michael Akindele said the bodies were deposited at the Mainland Hospital Mortuary by the State Environmental Health Monitoring Unit (SEHMU) officials.

He said: "Proper investigation would be carried out on the cause of the accident by the relevant government agencies. Motorists are advised to refrain from speeding and also adhere to all traffic rules and regulation to avoid incident such as this."
