One of the crushed tricycles... yesterday

Two commercial motorcyclists popularly known as Okada riders died yesterday morning in an accident.

The accident occurred at Okegbegun near Lagos State Polytechnic (LASPOTECH), Ikorodu campus around 8am.

The Nation learnt that a Total petrol tanker rammed into the Okada, two tricycles, a Sport Utility Vehicle (SUV) and a Mazda bus.

The motorcyclists died on the spot. The injured, including the tricycles' drivers were taken to the hospital.

The Nation learnt that the tanker driver was trying to bypass a broken down trailer before hitting the vehicles and motorcycles.

According to the officials of the Lagos State Traffic Management Authority (LASTMA), the accident was as a result of impatience on the part of the motorists.

One of the LASTMA officials said they were planning to move the broken down trailer away from the road side, before the incident occurred.

“The accident happened as the tanker heading to Odogunyan rammed into the tricycles, bikes and the SUV. Although they all tried to manoeuvre but it was to no avail.”

He said the two corpses have being taken to the general hospital, but the driver of the tanker ran away.

A roadside food seller said she saw the tanker seen hitting the tricycles, bike men and the SUV, until it got to a spot and stopped.

“I heard that two people died but I did not see them because I ran away,” she said.

Another eye witness said the tanker driver due to his impatience, tried to manoeuvre but his break failed.

“Two of the bike men died instantly and those in the tricycles were injured. All the dead and injured persons have been taken to the government hospital,” he said.

The Nation gathered that the tricycle passengers and drivers jumped out of the vehicle while some rolled under the broken down trailer.
