

• A passenger trying to rescue an injured man

• The commercial bus

Three dead, 12 injured in Lagos multiple accidents

By Precious Igbonwelundu

AT least three persons were yesterday confirmed dead and 12 others injured in separate accidents in Lagos at the weekend.

The accidents occurred on Ibeju-Lekki Link Bridge and the Third Mainland Bridge on Saturday and Sunday respectively.

It was learnt that a Nissan Primera saloon car with three occupants rammed into an oncoming truck on the Ibeju-Lekki Bridge.

The Nation gathered that the driver, who was on a high speed, wanted to avoid a stationary truck before ramming into the oncoming vehicle.

The driver, identified simply as Biodun, was said to have died on the spot. Two others died in the hospital. The injured ones were rushed to Akodo General Hospital by officials of the Lagos State Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA).

The accident on Third Mainland Bridge was said to have occurred after a commercial bus, marked FST 668 XR, fell on a BMW car, marked KRD 294 CN.

Most of the injured, it was learnt were passengers aboard the bus. It took the intervention of motorists to rescue the two passengers aboard the car.