The suspects...yesterday

The police have arrested two persons for unlawful possession of human heads.

JamiuAlabi, 24, and Yemi John, 32, were apprehended on Saturday night at Church Bus Stop, Ipaja.

They were alleged to have concealed three human heads inside loaves of bread.

The suspects were said to have sandwiched the heads in the breads with and inscribed names and amount on each.

While one of them had Danjumo N20,000 written on it, the others had Yusuf N70,000 and Alhaji Mumuni N10,000.

Police spokesperson Dolapo Badmos, a Superintendent (SP), said the case was under discreet investigation.

Badmos also confirmed the arrest of suspected armed robbers arrested along Shibiri/ Imude road in Ojo, after dispossessing one Ifeoluwa Francis of her belongings.

Segun Ariyo, 17 and Michael Adetona, 16, she said, while armed with a knife, robbed the victim of N20,000, a BlackBerry Z3 phone and recharge cards.

Badmos said the suspects were arrested while trying to share their loot.
