Boko Haram kills five Borno villagers in fresh attack

Posted By: Duku JOEL, Maiduguri on: October 11, 2016 In: News No Comments

Gunmen suspected to be members of the Boko Haram have yet lunched another attack on Kwashebe village of Jere Local Government Area in the outskirts of Maiduguri.

Five villagers were reported to have died in the attack which an eyewitness described as a brief but quick invasion.

A security source who does not want to be mentioned told our correspondent in Maiduguri that the after shooting randomly on the villagers and setting houses ablaze with petrol bombs looted food and livestock from the village and left.

The attack was said to have occurred at about 10.30 in the morning of Tuesday.

The source added that; "It was the quick intervention of some Civilian JTF around the area that responded on the attack by evacuating some victims, particularly the injured ones to a nearby Police Station in Jere Local Government Area".
